COMMISSIONER HUGH WEATHERS FILES FOR ELECTION
COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE SEEKS FULL FOUR-YEAR TERM

COLUMBIA- Commissioner of Agriculture Hugh Weathers filed for election with the South Carolina Republican Party today. The incumbent Commissioner of Agriculture, Weathers is seeking a full four-year term as head of the Department of Agriculture.

“Since my appointment as Commissioner of Agriculture by Governor Sanford, I am proud of the progress we have made to bring needed conservative leadership to the Department of Agriculture,” Weathers said. “I’m working hard to earn the vote of every South Carolinian, so I can continue to make a difference in our state.”

Weathers continued, “As I have traveled around South Carolina, I have found that the citizens of this state, especially farmers, understand and appreciate the job I have done during my tenure. The breadth of support has truly been overwhelming. My campaign will continue to focus on the policies and proposals that will make the Department of Agriculture more efficient and more effective for the taxpayers.”

Weathers, 49, is a dairy farmer from Bowman.
